

AMANI CENTRE FOR STREET CHILDREN – JOB ADVERTISEMENT

About Amani

Amani Centre for Street Children is a leading Tanzanian charity with over 20 years of existence rescuing street connected children, offering them safe shelter, education, health and holistic family reintegration. Each year we support more than 250 children off the streets, provide continued education for over 350, and maintain ongoing support to both children and their families.

POSITION: FUNDRAISING & COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR – Moshi (Full-time, On-site)

Reports to: Executive Director

Supervises: Volunteer Supervisor, Content Creator, Database Manager

Location: Moshi, Tanzania

Role Purpose

To lead and coordinate Amani ' s communications, public visibility, community engagement, and fundraising campaigns.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and maintain a communications strategy.
- Manage all external communication channels.
- Produce high-quality content.
- Plan and implement fundraising campaigns.
- Prepare donor reports.
- Build relationships with media and community.
- Coordinate events and awareness activities.
- Maintain donor database and monitor campaigns.

Qualifications & Skills

- 3-5 years of experience in communications or fundraising.
- Strong writing, editing, and storytelling skills.
- Experience with digital media and content creation.
- Bachelor ' s degree in Communications, Journalism, Marketing, PR, or related field.
- Excellent interpersonal skills.
- Must be based in or willing to relocate to Moshi.

How to Apply

Send by email: recruitment@amanikids.org

Deadline: 31st December 2025 before 1800HRS